“Lilly is a fantastic recruiter and an absolute pleasure to work with! Lilly started off recruiting for us in New York with some tricky hires and has exceeded expectations and now places contract and perm candidates across London. Lilly is a force of nature when it comes to recruiting and always goes above and beyond. Lilly is one of the only recruiters I have worked with who makes sure DE&I isn't a second thought. 3Search’s Creative team worked closely with Design & Tech Agency, Beyond, to find the business top talent in the U. K. and America.

Beyond

Beyond is a leading design and technology agency that builds world-class products for the digital age. They have offices around the world, including London, New York and a tech hub in Portugal.

The Problem

Beyond have had several needs over the past six months that we have managed to assist them on. Our initial brief was in the US, where they were looking for a freelance Digital Creative Director to lead creative on one of their largest clients. A brief that they were struggling to hire directly.

The Solution

Creative Consultant, Lilly McGann, had been touching base with Chris throughout the pandemic, providing salary surveys and market insights, to help him and the wider talent acquisition team, along with having previously worked together as colleagues.

“Lilly is a fantastic recruiter and an absolute pleasure to work with! Lilly started off recruiting for us in New York with some tricky hires and has exceeded expectations and now places contract and perm candidates across London. Lilly is a force of nature when it comes to recruiting and always goes above and beyond. Lilly is one of the only recruiters I have worked with who makes sure DE&I isn't a second thought. I would highly recommend her to any business who's looking to scale their design and product teams!”

Jason Jonah

Senior Consultant

The Results

After success with a US freelance hire they had struggled with directly, things moved to the UK. Beyond were winning more and more exciting projects and needed to pull more creatives in on a short-term basis. By December, we were helping to find around 7 freelance creatives spanning from Visual UI Designers, UX Researchers, Lead Motion Designers and a Creative Director.

What are we looking to achieve?

Clear Vision

In order to scale we need a clear vision, achievable goals and a coherent strategy on how to get there.

Collective

It needs to be something that we're collectively striving to achieve, which allows all of us to achieve our personal and professional goals.

Clarity

People need clarity on what's in for them and why it's a career defining journey that we're all embarking on.

The Journey so far...

We work with a wide range of clients from ambitious start-ups looking to make their first hires, through to FTSE 100 businesses wanting to expand their established teams.

Since 2014, we've grown to over 30 consultants, based in our offices in London. We operate internationally with a primary focus on recruitment across the United Kingdom and the United States of America.
